

I wish to make my opinion known on the subject of media companies' owning too much of a particular market issue. This is one that is coming up for vote soon. I feel the rollback of old law preventing this, that is the new push to deregulate, is a mistake.